Having performed in eleven countries and 30 states, Charlie has showcased his playing to well over 100,000 fans. In 2008 he was invited, on behalf of the US government, to be the first American country guitarist to ever play in Albania and Bosnia, as a member of Nashville based recording artist "The Ranchhands". Since, his solo efforts landed him a #1 spot on the Reverb Nation folk charts, and his compositions have been placed on the Travel Channel, CMT, the New England Sports Network and several independent films nation wide. Currently working on new release of Jazz and Folk inspired compositions with his own band, Charlie continues to perform internationally with Tokyo Rosenthal and The Aaron Mills Project.
